

2004
EAST OHIO HALL OF FAME NOMINEES

Dick Downs – Dick started Corvetting with Corvette Chardon in 1978 and joined Competition Corvette Association in 1985 where he is a member today. Dick served as CCA Governor for many years while competing with wife Mickey. He helped the Region function in those early years by serving on the Region Budget Committee. Dick also hosted 2 Regional Banquets and was there to help other Clubs when it was their turn. Dick believes rules were made to follow and he promoted fair competition, in or out of the Region. He continued to help CCA when asked and avidly supported the Clubs annual Charity Car Show. Although he stayed behind the scenes, he was always there if you needed him.

Bob Kirsch – Bob has been a member of NCCC for 24 years starting with Corvette Cleveland. He was instrumental in starting Super Vettes, which later merged with NEOVC. Bob is now back with Corvette Cleveland. He has held Club offices of Treasurer, Competition Director, Newsletter Editor, Governor and Web Master. Bob has carried his Web Master title over to the Region along with being the Champ Series Director and Regional Banquet Committee Treasurer. Though Bob never held any NCCC offices, he was Concourse chairman of the 1997 & 2001 Conventions and has assisted the National Corvette Museum as Corvette show chairman. Being the “Waxrboy” of the Region, attending Bloomington and Carlisle, Bob has a thorough knowledge of what it takes to “concourse” a car & has held Training Seminars for club members on judging and detailing. Bob was the leading influence in the creation of the Regional Website, getting the word out to perspective members.

Fred Kubiak – Fred became a member of Corvette Cleveland in 1969 and NCCC in 1972. He has held Club offices of President, Competition Director, Executive Board and NCCC Governor. In addition, Fred was the High Speed Chairman for the 1975 Convention. Fred enjoyed the competition having built and raced his RP and over the years he has accumulated 200+ FTD's. Fred promoted NCCC, the East Ohio Region and Corvette Cleveland wherever he went. If you needed help at an event Fred was there to help. He continues to enjoy Socials, Parades and Supporting local Charities.

Gail Moore – Gail has been a member of NCCC and Tiretown for the past 24 years. While working in marketing for several area Malls, Gail was instrumental in securing these facilities for the “Corvettes on the Mall” concourse that took place for many years. She has been Newsletter Editor and Social Director several times. Gail held the National office of Secretary and Public Relations. She served as Sponsorship Chairman and has contributed numerous articles to Blue Bars. Gail continued her involvement in the Region as a Chairperson for the 1987 & 1997 Ohio Conventions. When husband Alan became Regional Competition Director, Gail became the “unofficial” points keeper and spent several years creating the computer generated points program. Last year she was appointed the “official Regional points keeper”. If not for work commitments, Gail would attend National & Regional meetings with Alan and you could usually find her at most National Conventions. Whenever Gail meets a Corvette owner she is the 1st to promote the National, Regional and Local Clubs and supports both National & Local Charities.
